

Central Safety Group Inc. Monthly Event

May 2026

The OHS leadership dilemma

Book Now

What: The OHS leadership dilemma

Who: Kevin Jones, Editor, SafetyAtWorkBlog

Details: For years, the key to positive change in OHS seems to have relied on leadership. However, the notion of leadership is something that people might recognise, but can't describe. Kevin Jones, editor of the SafetyAtWorkBlog, will be zooming in on Tuesday 12th May to discuss this dilemma.

Kevin's view is that there are two versions of leadership. One is a position or title that invokes leadership and is bestowed on people, but who then often need to learn how to be a leader. The other is the quality of leadership that many of us display and is within our nature.

These two versions are rarely, if ever, defined in the many books about leadership and OHS. However, they are fundamental to how we manage OHS, how we talk to our bosses and how we promote and educate our workers and clients. With his finger on the pulse of current publications and his wonderfully thought-provoking style, Kevin will delve into this confusion as well as what he describes as avoidance techniques.

Kevin will also talk about his latest project as an OHS Advisor on Norfolk Island, which is bound to cover some very interesting issues.

Event Details

When & Where

When: 12 noon-1pm, Tuesday, 12 May 2026

How: Via Zoom only

N.B. A video recording of the session will be available on the website exclusively for financial members.

Bookings

Financial Members: Free

Non-members: Cost $15

**If unsure of your membership status, contact membership@centralsafetygroup.com*

Book online at centralsafetygroup.com

[Individual membership fee for 2026: $85]

RSVP

By close of business Monday, 11 May 2026

